News Around Town

By Mrs. Calvin Robinson

Driving by the McLean House on Sunday afternoon, we counted 18 automobiles parked in the lot for visitors. We may look for larger numbers of tourists here from now on: but perhaps never again such a scene as that day at the Dedication, when some 25,000 were jammed in the historic area.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin, Mrs. Wilson Adams and Mrs. Charlie McFadden will leave Saturday for DeLand, Florida, where they will spend next week. They expect to visit Silver Springs and other points of interest. They will be accompanied home by Mrs. Martin's aunt, Mrs. E. L. Woodson, who plans to spend the summer here.

Appomattox is a growing town. As of Saturday night, we will have our first drive-in movie, located on Route 460, next to Thompson's Restaurant. Drive-in's are quite the thing in the South. Congratulations to Percy Thompson, manager.

Happy birthday to Mrs. John D. Hamilton, who celebrated her 84th birthday Sunday.

See the movies: "God of Creation" and "Dust or Destiny" which will be shown at the school auditorium at 3:00 P. M. Sunday. There will be no admission charge or offering taken. See more details of this under "Church News."

Pfc. Howard T. Williams, Jr., is stationed at Wichita Falls, Texas.

Pfc. Charlie D. Lewis has been transferred from Fort Jackson, S. C. to Camp Atterbury, Indiana.

M. G. Paulette, who is stationed at Arlington, Va., has recently been promoted from the rank of corporal to sergeant. Congratulations, Sgt. Paulette!

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Simpson have moved into their new home on Evergreen Road.

Mrs. Crawford Davidson entertained at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday night, at the AHS cafeteria, honoring Miss Helen Mae Poe, bride-elect.

If you want to see a beautiful sight, may I suggest the Cherry Blossoms in Washington. They tell us they will be in full bloom Sunday week, Easter Sunday. By the way: my birthday is April 12. Perhaps I can persuade Father Darkleaf to take me sight-seeing some place.

S. L. Ferguson III, U. S. Navy, spent the week-end here with his grandmother, Mrs. S. L. Ferguson.

I hear that the AHS Seniors are presenting a fine class play this year. April 10 is the date.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bailey have moved into the "Buster" Moore residence. Mrs. Bailey's mother, Mrs. Ray Carter, of Stoneville, N. C. is spending this week with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Speir have moved into an apartment in the W. D. Morris home.

Pamplin

PAMPLIN, April 1.- Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McD. Farrar celebrated the first birthday of their daughter, Anne Stuart on Wednesday, March 26. The lower floor of their home was profusely decorated with spring flowers, carrying out a color scheme of yellow, pink and white; also in the refreshments. A birthday cake with cream was served. Guests included members of Mr. and Mrs. Farrar's family at Pamplin.

Mrs. M. L. McDearmon, of Montvale; Mrs. Frances Cheatham and C. S. McDearmon, of Appomattox, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Farrar last Friday.

Oakville

OAKVILLE, April 2.- Mrs. Clarence Moore and Bobby Phelps motored to Lynchburg to see Mrs. Florine Phelps, who has been in the hospital. She is better at this writing and staying with her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Williams and children, Carroll and Andrew spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Martin.

Mrs. Garland Barcher and son, Jimmie left Sunday for a visit with relatives in Norfolk.

Cantatas and operas differ in that a cantata is a musical drama sung without costume, scenery or action, while those things are present in an opera.

Hadrian (122 A. D.) built the Roman Wall in England.

Most musical terms are derived from the Italian language.
